Passport Collection Centre has also been opened very recently in Amritsar. The Standing Committee of Parliament has recommended that new Passport Offices be opened in states/regions where input of applications for fresh passports exceeds 50,000. There are also other parameters based on which location of new Passport Offices is decided. Based on these, there is no requirement of opening any new Passport Offices in the State of Punjab.

(c) and (d) Presently Passports are being issued to the applicants from the State of Punjab within a reasonable period of time. Generally, there are no longer complaints regarding delays in issue of passports by any of the two Passport Offices which serve the applicants from the state.
